PART TWO

SUPERVISION AND REGISTRATION OF NON-PROFIT ORGANISATIONS

Regulator of Non-Profit
organisations

4. (1) The Financial Intelligence Unit shall be the Regulator of Non-Profit Organisations (hereinafter referred to as the “Regulator of Non-Profit Organisations”) and shall—

- (a) be responsible for the AML/CFT/PF supervision of non-profit organisations with a gross annual income exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; and
- (b) in relation to non-profit organisations, have the powers and duties conferred on it by this Act, the Financial Intelligence Unit of Trinidad and Tobago Act and any other written law.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), section 18B of the Financial Intelligence Unit of Trinidad and Tobago Act does not apply to non-profit organisations.

(3) Where a non-profit organisation under subsection (1) is registered under this Act, the Regulator shall, using a risk based approach, determine the level of supervision required for the non-profit organisation under the Financial Intelligence Unit of Trinidad and Tobago Act.

5. (1) A person shall not operate a non-profit organisation in Trinidad and Tobago unless the non-profit organisation is registered under this Act. Application for registration as non-profit organisation

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of fifty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for seven years.

(3) An application for registration as a non-profit organisation shall be made by a controller of a non-profit organisation to the Registrar General in the form prescribed by Rules.

(4) An application for registration as a non-profit organisation under subsection (3) shall include the following:

- (a) a form containing—
  - (i) the name, address, telephone number and e-mail address of the non-profit organisation;
  - (ii) the declared purposes and activities of the non-profit organisation; and
  - (iii) the name, occupation, address, telephone number and e-mail address of each person who is a controller of the non-profit organisation;
- (b) copies of the constituent documents of the non-profit organisation;
- (c) a copy of photo identification of the controller making the application of the non-profit organisation in the form of a valid national identification card or passport;
- (d) a completed AML/CFT/PF risk assessment questionnaire;
- (e) a fee prescribed by Rules; and
- (f) such other information as may be prescribed by Rules.

Chap. 32:50

(5) A society registered under the Friendly Societies Act is exempted from the requirement to be registered as a non-profit organisation under this Act.

Power to grant or renew registration

6. (1) Where the Registrar General is satisfied that an applicant has met the requirements of this Act for registration or renewal of registration, he shall—

- (a) approve the registration of the applicant in thirty business days; and
- (b) issue to the non-profit organisation a Certificate of Non-Profit Organisation Registration in the form prescribed by Rules.

(2) The Registrar General may refuse to register or renew an applicant as a non-profit organisation if—

- (a) the applicant does not qualify to be a non-profit organisation within the definition of a non-profit organisation under section 3;
- (b) the information contained in the application for registration is incorrect or incomplete;
- (c) the non-profit organisation is a designated individual or entity under section 22B of the Anti-Terrorism Act or any order made under section 4 of the Economic Sanctions Act;
- (d) a person named as a controller is disqualified under section 19;
- (e) the name of the non-profit organisation—
  - (i) is the same or similar to a name of a registered non-profit organisation, any other person, association, partnership, firm, or any registered trade mark or any well-known trade mark as determined under section 13A of the Trade Marks Act

Chap. 12:07

Chap. 81:05

Chap. 82:81

- and the use of that name would be likely to confuse or mislead, unless the non-profit organisation, person, association, partnership or firm consents in writing to the use of that name in whole or in part;
- (ii) is primarily a geographic name used alone unless the applicant establishes to the satisfaction of the Registrar General that the name has, through use, acquired and continues to have a secondary meaning;
  - (iii) suggests or implies a connection with the State, or the Government or of any ministry, department, branch, bureau, service, agency or activity of the Government, unless consent in writing to the proposed name is duly obtained from the appropriate Minister;
  - (iv) contains the word or words "credit union", "co-operative", or "co-op" when it connotes a co-operative venture;
  - (v) suggests or implies a connection with a university or a professional association recognised by the laws of Trinidad and Tobago unless the university or professional association concerned consents in writing to the use of the proposed name;
  - (vi) is a name, in the opinion of the Registrar General, for any reason, objectionable; or
- (f) where the non-profit organisation, having been previously registered under this Act has been cancelled under section 10.

(3) Where the Registrar General refuses to register an applicant under section 5, or refuses to renew an application under section 7, the Registrar General shall, within fourteen days of such refusal, issue a notice to the applicant and provide reasons in writing within fourteen days thereafter.

(4) Where an applicant receives a notice under subsection (3), he may within thirty days of the date of the notice provide the Registrar General with written reasons as to why his application should be approved.

(5) Upon receipt of reasons under subsection (4) the Registrar General shall determine whether the registration should be granted or the renewal refused and a notice shall be sent to the applicant accordingly.

Renewal of registration

7. (1) A certificate of registration issued under section 6 is valid for a period of five years from the date of issue.

(2) A non-profit organisation shall apply in the form prescribed by Rules to the Registrar General for the renewal of its certificate of registration no later than one month after the certificate expires.

(3) A non-profit organisation that submits an application for renewal shall pay a fee prescribed by Rules and may continue to operate until a decision is made by the Registrar General.

Non-profit
companies

8. (1) A non-profit company registered under the Companies Act is deemed to be duly registered as a non-profit organisation under this Act.

(2) The Registrar General shall enter a non-profit company under subsection (1) on the register.

Establishment of a register of non-profit
organisations

9. (1) A register of non-profit organisations shall be established and maintained by the Registrar General.

(2) The register shall include the following information with respect to a non-profit organisation:

- (a) its name, address, telephone number and e-mail address;
- (b) its purpose and activities;
- (c) the name, occupation and address of each person who is a controller of the non-profit organisation;
- (d) the date of its registration as a non-profit organisation, the date of its renewal of registration, and if applicable, the date on which its registration was cancelled; and
- (e) such other information prescribed by Rules.

(3) The Registrar General shall on his own motion provide a copy of the register to the Regulator or when requested by the Regulator.

(4) A person who has paid the fee prescribed by Rules may, during normal business hours, examine, make copies of or extracts from, the register.

(5) The Registrar General shall not disclose information under section 5(4) which is not contained in the register except—

- (a) to the Regulator;
- (b) for the purposes of law enforcement for Court proceedings; or
- (c) pursuant to an order of the Court.

10. (1) The Registrar General may cancel the registration of a non-profit organisation if—

Cancellation of registration

- (a) the non-profit organisation failed, without reasonable cause—
  - (i) to keep proper financial accounts and records in accordance with section 13; or

(ii) to submit audited financial accounts and records in accordance with section 14;

(b) it is proven in Court that the non-profit organisation breached a duty owed to itself or any of its contributors;

(c) it is proven in Court that the non-profit organisation committed a criminal offence which carries a penalty of a term of imprisonment of three years or more;

(d) the non-profit organisation is found guilty of an offence under the Proceeds of Crime Act, Anti-Terrorism Act, Financial Intelligence Unit of Trinidad and Tobago Act, or any other written law by which the recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force are implemented;

(e) the non-profit organisation is a designated individual or entity under section 22B of the Anti-Terrorism Act or any order made under section 4 of the Economic Sanctions Act; or

(f) the non-profit organisation is struck off the Companies register under section 461 or 489 of the Companies Act.

Chap. 11:27

(2) Where the Registrar General determines that the registration of a non-profit organisation should be cancelled in accordance with subsection (1), the Registrar General shall give notice giving reason for the cancellation, in writing to the non-profit organisation that its registration shall be cancelled upon the expiration of thirty days, or such longer period as the Registrar General may determine, from the date of the notice, unless within that period the non-profit organisation submits written reasons to the satisfaction of the Registrar General as to why its registration should not be cancelled.

(3) Where the Registrar General is in receipt of written reasons under subsection (2), the Registrar General shall consider those reasons and make a determination within twenty-one days from the date of receipt of those reasons.

(4) Where the Registrar General decides not to cancel the registration of a non-profit organisation, he shall, as soon as is practicable, notify the non-profit organisation in writing.

(5) Where the registration of a non-profit organisation is cancelled—

(a) the Registrar General shall, as soon as is practicable, notify the non-profit organisation, the Regulator and such other persons as may be prescribed by Regulations of that cancellation; and

(b) the non-profit organisation shall not conduct business as a non-profit organisation nor solicit cash, donations, grants, subventions, or property.

11. (1) The Registrar General shall update the register <sup>Updating the register</sup> if the registration of a non-profit organisation is cancelled or surrendered pursuant to this Act, and the Registrar General shall publish notice thereof in the Gazette and one daily newspaper in general circulation in Trinidad and Tobago.

(2) The Registrar General shall inform the Regulator when a non-profit company is struck off the Companies register under section 461 or 489 of the Companies Act, and shall update the register accordingly.

12. (1) An applicant under section 5 whose registration <sup>Appeals</sup> is refused may appeal that decision to a Judge of the High Court.

(2) A non-profit organisation whose renewal of registration is refused under section 6 may appeal that decision to a Judge of the High Court.

(3) A non-profit organisation whose registration is cancelled under section 10 may appeal that decision to a Judge of the High Court.
